CASH, WHEN REQUIRED. NOTES ARE HOWEVER TAKEN to accommodate the Insured in paying his Premiums, thus allowing the confidence of the Company in its ability to declare Dividends that will eventually CANCEL THE NOTES.

REMEMBER

That the OLD MANHATTAN never assumes or promises Extravagant Dividends to induce insurers to come and insure with them. Their Dividends in the past have always been equal to all well managed and first class Companies, and they can offer the records of the past as an evidence of the future. It never vilifies the character of other Companies to accumulate business. THE MANHATTAN rates. The business of the Company is conducted with ECONOMY!

This is an evidence of careful management and a promise of Large Dividends in future.

Grant

HIS CAREER BEFORE AND DURING THE REBELLION

From letters by the father of Gen. Grant published in the New York Ledger.

Grant graduated in 1843 and entered the Fourth Regiment of United States Infantry as Brevet Second Lieutenant. In the fall of that year he joined his regiment at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri. About four miles from the barracks lived young Dent, a class mate to whom Grant had been very kind at West Point, and who now often invited him to his home.

Dent had two unmarried sisters, and to one of them Grant became engaged. But the consummation of this engagement was long postponed by the breaking out of the Mexican war. He served through that war and fought in every battle under General Taylor excepting Buena Vista. Before that occurred his regiment had been taken away from Taylor by General Scott.

He was in all Scott's battles, fourteen in number, in Mexico, and was highly complimented for skill and gallantry, and twice breveted for meritorious services.

Grant participated in the crowning victory, the capture of the City of Mexico, September 13th and 14th, 1847, and Major Francis Lee, commanding the Fourth Infantry in that battle, in his official report says:

"At the first barrier the enemy was in strong force, which rendered it necessary to advance with caution. This was done, and when the head of the battalion was within short musket range of the barrier, Lieutenant Grant, Fourth Infantry, and Captain Brooks, Second Artillery, with a few men of their respective regiments, by a handsome movement to the left, turned the right flank of the enemy, and the barrier was carried."

And he mentions Lieutenant Grant as "among the most distinguished for their zeal and activity."

While he was gone to the Mexican war, he wrote to us often until they reached Vera Cruz. Then we did not hear from him again until they returned there. During this time his mother's hair turned white from her anxiety about him.

At the close of the war he returned home and was married in 1848, and was married to Miss Julia S. Dent, to whom, as has already been remarked, he was engaged before he went to Mexico. Her brother, who was his classmate, is now General Dent, and her father, Mr. Frederick Dent, formerly of St. Louis, now eighty one years of age, resides with General Grant at Washington.

The regiment to which Grant belonged was stationed on the Lake Shore, with headquarters at Detroit. He was Quartermaster. Subsequently they were removed to Sackett's Harbor, where they remained for some time, and then to Governor's Island—for only a few days, however. In 1852 they were ordered nominally to California, but really to Oregon. They made scarcely any stop in California, but proceeded on to Astoria. Grant was obliged to leave his family—consisting of his wife and little child—behind. They came to our house, where, soon after, his second child was born.

In 1853 he was promoted to a full captaincy, the rank which he had held by brevet before, and assigned to the command of a company away in the interior of Oregon. In 1854, seeing no prospect of having his family with him if he remained in the army, he resigned and came home.

His wish to become a farmer was now realized. Mr. Dent, his father in law, gave his wife a farm about nine miles from St. Louis, in Missouri, and stocked it. Grant farmed it for about four years, at the end of which he was not so well off pecuniarily as when he began. To be sure, he had made some improvements on the place, he had built a new house—in part with his own hands—of hewn logs, for himself to live in it. During all this time he worked like a slave. No man ever worked harder. He used to market wood. He kept men to chop it in the woods, and he hauled it to St. Louis. He had two teams; he drove one himself and his little son drove the other. Grant was a thorough farmer and an excellent plowman—though he never plowed a great deal.

Although Grant made no money on his farm, yet I think he derived a great benefit from his experience in civil life, when he came to re-enter the army, for the practical conduct of military affairs. I consider that he was far better qualified to take the command of our great armies than he would have been if he had remained continuously in the service.

At the end of four years of unremitting labor, finding that farming didn't pay, Grant concluded to quit it, and moved into St. Louis, and went into the real estate business with a man named Boggs. After trying this a few months, he saw that the profits were not sufficient to support two families, and he told his partner, "You may take the whole of this and I'll look up something else to do." He next obtained a place in the Custom House, which he held for about two months, when the Collector who appointed him died, and he left.

I owned a leather store at Galena, Ill., which was conducted by my two other sons. Grant went to Galena and joined them in that.

He took right hold of the business with his accustomed industry, and was a very good salesman. He had a faculty to entertain people in conversation, although he talked but little himself. But he never would take any pains to extend his acquaintance in Galena, and after he joined the army and began to be distinguished, citizens of the town would stop in front of our store within six feet of the window, and look in to see which of the Grants it was that was absent and had suddenly become famous.

After the fall of Sumter, Grant wrote to me, at Covington, asking me if I did not think, as he had been educated at the expense of the Government, he had better go into the army? I wrote back that I thought he had better. But before he received my answer, and within six days of the fall of Fort Sumter, he was drilling a company.

This company offered to elect him Captain, but a gentleman who desired a higher military position, and thought this would serve as a stepping stone to it, frankly confessed his aspirations to Grant, who told him that he should not be a candidate himself, and also told the company that he should decline, but he agreed to go with them to Springfield, the capital of the State.

On this mission he was accompanied by the Hon. E. B. Washburne, the Representative in Congress from the Galena district, who introduced him to Gov. Yates, the Governor of the State. Mr. Yates did not appear to take much notice of him at the time, but, a day or two afterwards, sent for him and asked him:

"Do you understand how many men it takes to make a company? And how many to make a regiment? And what officers each must have?"

"Oh, yes," replied Grant, "I understand all about such matters. I was educated at West Point and served eleven years in the regular army."

"Well, then," said the Governor, "I want you to take a chair here in my office as Adjutant General of the State."

Grant remained in this capacity several weeks, when he made a short visit to us at Covington. While he was absent from Springfield, Mr. Burk, a young man employed in our house at Galena, called on Governor Yates, and in the course of the interview the Governor said to him:

"What kind of a man is this Grant? He has been educated at West Point and says he wants to [illegible] the army. Several regiments have offered to elect him colonel, but he says 'No,' and [illegible]. What does he want?"

"You see, Governor," said Burk, "Grant has always been in the regular army, where they have no elections, but officers are promoted according to seniority. Whatever place you want him for, just appoint him without consulting him at all beforehand, and you will find that he will accept whatever he is appointed to."

Acting on this suggestion, the Governor telegraphed to me that he had appointed Ulysses Colonel of the Twenty-first Illinois Infantry. But Grant had left for Springfield before the telegram was received, [illegible] his appointment and assumed command of his regiment, which he led into service in Missouri under Brigadier General Pope.

Until the beginning of the war Grant, or rather Mrs. Grant, owned [illegible] very likely [illegible] Missouri, but he let them [illegible] Proclamation of Emancipation was issued to go free and look out for themselves.

The history of General Grant's subsequent military career, of his great Western and Eastern campaigns, and of his respective promotions up to his present rank, is a part of the familiar history of the country, and I do not propose to enter upon that. When the great outcry was made against him after the battle of Pittsburg Landing, one of his aids wrote several letters in his defence and sent them to me for publication. I published one, which seemed to have a very salutary effect on public sentiment in this part of the country. But as soon as General Grant learned of it he telegraphed me not to publish any more.

General Grant wrote to me once from the West, during the war, that the government had a good deal of him, but they had never asked any more than he felt himself equal to. He was then on his way to Washington to take command of the Army. On the way he stopped an hour to see us. His mother asked him if he was not afraid to attack Lee. "Not at all," he replied. "I know Lee as well as he knows himself. I know all his strong points and all his weak ones. I intend to attack his weak points and flank his strong ones."

He wrote to us occasionally throughout the war, but his time was too much occupied for him to write frequently or at much length. His mother suffered much less anxiety about him than she did during the Mexican war. She seemed to feel throughout the rebellion that he had been raised up for the particular purpose of that war, and that the same power that raised him up would protect him.

His family were with us for about six months. They came up from Cairo just after the battle of Fort Donelson. There is an incident connected with their arrival at Covington which may be worth mentioning, for in a few years it will probably hardly seem possible that such an event could have occurred in the United States.

They reached Cincinnati, just across the Ohio river, opposite to Covington, on Sunday morning. Mrs. Grant hired a hackman to take her and her family over the river to our house. The hackman happened to be a mulatto, a thrifty fellow who owned a good pair of horses and a carriage himself. He took his passengers to our house, received their fare, and started back, and had reached the bank of the river—in fact he was actually on the float leading to the boat and was driving on to the ferry boat—to go over. Just then our enterprising City Marshal happened to espy him, and under the act prohibiting colored persons from entering the State without a pass, he arrested him. His horses and carriage were left standing in the street to take care of themselves, and the man was hurried off to prison. A stable keeper, seeing the horses and carriage, kindly took care of them.

The colored man sent for me, and I called on Mr. Nixon, a lawyer, but it was Sunday and nothing could be done about getting him out until Monday. On Monday we had to give bail in the sum of one hundred dollars for his appearance before the grand jury to answer any indictment which they might find against him. The grand jury indicted him for coming into the State without a permit. Under the advice of his counsel he forfeited his bail, as that was a much less punishment than he would undoubtedly have had to suffer if he had appeared. Governor Bramlette, on being applied to, released a portion of the penalty which was in his discretion, and the remainder had to be paid. It seems strange that when a General was absent, fighting for his country, a man should undergo this punishment simply for taking that General's family in a carriage to their place of destination.

In the latter part of the Mississippi campaign the General's oldest boy, then thirteen, accompanied him, and was with him under fire at Vicksburg. He is now a cadet at West Point.

When Governor Yates, of Illinois, was a candidate for the United States Senate, some of the friends of Washburne, who was a rival candidate for the same office, made the point in his favor that he was the man who had brought forward General Grant, and they urged that a man who had given such a General to the country deserved to be Senator. Yates, in reply, said that it was not true that Washburne had given Grant to the country. "God," said he, "gave General Grant to the country, and I signed his first commission." Then stretching upward his right hand he exclaimed, "and it was the most glorious day of my life when these fingers signed that commission."

THE LATE JOHN HENRY, SON OF PATRICK HENRY.—The death of this gentleman at his patrimonial seat in Charlotte county has already been announced, and speaking of him the Norfolk Journal, of a late date, says:

At the death of Patrick Henry his son John, whose death has just occurred, was only two years old, and he retained no recollections of his father, but to his dying hour he cherished an ardent affection for his memory, preserving all the relics of the patriot with religious care, and defended it against all the misrepresentations which the heated partisans of an era subsequent to the revolution were disposed to lay at his door. Among those relics we remember a small penknife which the uncle of the orator gave him when he was a boy, and which he wore in his waistcoat pocket to his dying day.

A visit to Red Hill, when John Henry was in the fullness of his health, and before the raging of that terrible storm which has prostrated the fortunes of the South, was a day ever to be remembered by the recipients of the courtesies of that hospitable mansion. Its position on the brow of a hill was all that could be wished. As you looked southward, you heard on the right a dashing little mountain stream breaking its irregular way to the Staunton, and before you, stretching far and wide, and bounded by the Staunton, were several hundred acres of rich low grounds teeming with crops of corn, wheat and tobacco, and yet beyond were the blue hills of Halifax rising from the banks of the stream, but not obstructing a view to the south as far as the eye could reach. Of the refined and generous hospitalities of that homestead none who ever shared them will be unmindful. And then, as the evening shadows were falling, that visit with the family to the grave of our great patriot, who lies beside his wife and a family of several generations, closed one of the most interesting days in the life of the visitor.

It was not the disposition of Mr. John Henry to engage in the turmoils of public life. In the employments of his beautiful plantation, in the rearing of a large and intelligent family, and in the gentle and generous pursuits of literature, he spent a peaceful and honorable life.

THE PRESIDENT'S FALSE FRIENDS.—The Democratic party is quite willing to see Mr. Johnson removed. The World has formally warned the President that he can expect no comfort from that party; that his battle is not a Democratic battle, and while the Democracy will give him no sympathy and accept all his offices, there is the end of it. Look at the call for the meeting last night. Not one Democratic leader joins in the movement. Mr. Belmont and Mr. Barlow, Mr. Tweed and Mr. Sweeney, Mr. Haskin and Mr. S. S. Cox, Mr. Marble and Mr. Chauncey, Judge Barnard and Mr. Wood, are all absent. Even Gen. Halpine, who was last week predicting a revolution, and evidently on the point of beginning one, has neither speech nor song for his Excellency. Collector Smythe, with his exciseman, and James R. Doolittle, Jr., in whom Johnsonism is a heroic virtue, and Mr. Raymond and Mr. Weed, who did as much to get Mr. Johnson into trouble as anybody else, are silent. There is something quite mournful about this. Here are the men the President fed. He trusted them. He showered them with offices, he cried with them over the [illegible] for them he swung around the circle [illegible] at every Northern [illegible] They [illegible] feasted upon him and called him the second Jackson and the Savior of his country [illegible] that [illegible] into oblivion, there is not one to send him a word of cheer and consolation. It is sad and very suggestive.—N. Y. Tribune.

Nasby on Irish Liberty and English Oppression

POST OFFIS CONFEDERIT X ROADS,
(wich is in the Stait of Kentucky)
February 17, 1868.

There is located at the Corners about 12 or 15 sons uv the Green Isle uv Erin. To fasten these voters and hold em to us it was considered advisable that some akshen be taken by the Democrisy uv the Corners in the matter uv Irish liberty and English oppreshun. The idee originated with Deekin Pogram and Bascom, Capt. McPelter and I concurred. We met at the church, and I made, ez is the custom, the leadin speech. It was a subjick that is easy to talk uv. Liberty, for there's suthin inspirin in the word. That's the reason why the Ablishnists hev allus had the advantage uv us in the matter uv speakers. They hev all the advantage uv sentiment, but, hallelooyer! uv wat avail is sentiment when you hurl it at a lazy man? Uv wat good is it to talk uv liberty to a man who don't like to work, who hez a taste for draw poker and mint goolops, and who kin force fifty or a hundred niggers to work for him! You mite ez well fire paper wads at an iron clad. That's wher the Democrisy hev em in Kentucky. Everybody here hez a dislike for work, and a liking for mint goolops, but nobody haint got no sentiment.

Still we hev no objecshun to talkin uv liberty, at long range. We hev no objecshun to it in Ireland. In fact, we are willin to admit that in Ireland it is a pretty good thing.

I spoke eloquently on the subjick. I held up each uv the wrongs endoored by the Irish ez I cood conveniently remember, spoke feelinly uv wat they hed suffered, wuz a suffrin and probably hed yet to suffer, and demanded that the Corners unite in a expreshun uv simpathy with em, ez those most certainly entitled to it. I wuz applauded to the eko, and Bascom riz. He hed a series of resolushuns which he begged to submit, ez follers:

WHEREAS, We hev red in the noosepapers or hev hed red to us, wich is the same thing, solemonizing accounts uv the horrors now afflictin Ireland on account uv the oppreshun an tyranny practiced upon em by the bloated aristocrats and pampered sons uv luxury uv England, and whereas the Corners feels for the victims uv oppreshun and weeps at their woes, therefore be it

Resolved, That the holdin uv the Irish in bondage in Ireland by the English, is a reproach onto the sivilizashun uv the 19th century.

Resolved, That the taxin uv the Irish without givin uv em a voice in the Goverment, the forsin uv em to support a Goverment in the runnin uv wich they hev no voice, an the other outrajes too tejus to menshun, wich is bein continyooally inflicted onto em, stirs our blood with indignashun, and we hereby extend our sympathy to em.

Resolved, That we demand uv the Goverment uv the Yoonited States that steps be immejiately took to release Amerikan citizens uv Irish [illegible] now languishin in English prisons, and that, if needs be, to assert the dignity uv the republick, we go to war in thir cuz.

The resolooshens wuz about bein unanimoosly adopted when that miserable cuss, Joe Bigler, riz. He sed he had a remark to make. He approved of them resolooshens. He believed in em. Taxation without representashen wuz ojus—it wuz tyranny—it cood never be endoored, and he cared not wher it wuz practist, it wuz abhorrent to every lover uv liberty. He shood cheerfully vote for them resolooshens, but he desired to make a little addishen to em.

I remarkt that amendments wuz in order.

"Very good," sed Josef, "I move to add these:

Resolved, Also that ez taxashen without representashen is unjust in Ireland, it is in Kentucky, and that while this Convenshun hez her pocket-handkercher out a weepin over the woes uv the Irish, it sling a tear or two over the unforchunet black citizens uv this State, who are bein taxed like thunder, but who aint permitted to vote at all.

Resolved, likewise, That while moistenin up over the Amerikan citizens uv Irish decent now in prizen in England, we give down a trifle over the four Amerikan citizens uv Afriken dissent now in jail in this county, who wuz imprisoned for no cause watever, ceptin knockin down [illegible] white men who aboosed their wives.

Resolved moreover, That while we condemn England for imprisonin Amerikan citizens uv Irish descent without cos, and for tyrannizin over em generally, we shel take sich steps ez shel prevent the same thing bein done to an alarmin extent to Amerikan citizens uv Afriken descent at home.

These resolooshens," sed Josef, "I move ez a amendment. Uv corse no one will objeck, for the principle is the same here ez there."

I replied breefly "there wuz a distinkshun. I feared Bigler did not understand the matter. Ther wuz a distinkshun, and it wuz not altogether on akkount uv the Afrikin's bein a black man either. If there wuz a strong immygrashen from Afriky to Ameriky and the Afrikin immygrant cood give a vote after he hed bin here five years, the Democrasy wood hev no diffikilty in gettin up sympathy for em. But it aint so, and hence I see no practikle good in the amendment. I mildly but firmly objeck to addin these resolooshens to the reg'lar ones reported by Bascom. The nigger is Bigler sed he expected it wood be objeckted to. But that he was so well satisfied that it out to pass that he felt that he must take extryordinary meshers. He wanted every one to vote on the amendment ez he pleased—he wanted every man to exercise his judgment, but he shood take the liberty uv puttin the moshen, and should feel called upon to bust the hed uv any man who votes against it.

Uv corse that settled it. We all hev a regard for Josef, for he does allus ez he sez. Every man in the room voted for it, and the Corners voted for it, and the Corners stand committed to nigger suffrage. Good Heavens! Cant this cuss be got rid uv?

Their Record Ineffaceable

Could it have been foreseen, when the Democratic party was making its nefarious record in opposing the war for the Union, that the time would come, and that speedily, when it would be anxious either to obliterate that record or give it a different meaning from what was intended when they made it? Could it have been foreseen that the party would soon be anxious to prove that its peace record was a war record, and that it would claim the credit of having at all times supported the Constitution and the Union "against all their enemies?" Yet such is now the case. They are anxious to show that they had a hand in putting down the rebellion.

In commenting on the fifth resolution of the platform recently adopted by them in this State, we said that the Democratic party during the war did not pass any resolutions of a "positive character," like the one we were referring to. The Herald calls this "Radical misrepresentation," and to refute it quotes from the Chicago platform of 1864. We were aware that that platform pronounces feebly for the Constitution and the Union. But it does not declare it to be "the highest duty of every American city to maintain against all their enemies the obligations of the Constitution and the integrity of the Union under it." A resolution of this "positive character" would, at that time have been a declaration in favor of the prosecution of the war for the overthrow of the traitorous enemies of the Constitution and the Union. Instead of adopting a resolution of this kind, the Democratic National Convention passed a meaningless resolution or two, to the effect that it was their aim "to preserve the Union and the rights of the States unimpaired," but declaring the war a failure, and demanding that it should cease. Those feeble resolutions in favor of preserving the Union amounted to nothing whatever, because they opposed the employment of the only means by which the Union could be preserved. Buchanan said he wanted to save the Union, but took the ground that it was unconstitutional to employ force for its preservation. This was the principle on which the Chicago Convention of 1864 proceeded. It was the principle on which the entire Democratic party acted, and the Herald dares not deny it. We have extensive files of the paper published by Beriah Brown during that period, and we could reproduce columns of articles from his own pen to prove the correctness of our statements. What were their half-hearted professions of attachment to the Union worth, when they took positive ground against the use of the only means by which the preservation of the Union could be accomplished? Every man knows that the only hope for maintaining the Union was to fight the rebellion down, yet the Democratic party at that time declared in its National Convention that the Government ought to stop the war.

H. W. S.

Objects of the Union Party.

Every measure which the Union party contends for and proposes to permanently establish, is embodied in the proposed fourteenth amendment to the Constitution of the United States. The amendment contains the following propositions: 1. All persons born in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction of that Government are citizens thereof. 2. All persons naturalized in the United States are citizens thereof. 3. No State shall make or enforce any law abridging the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States. 4. No State shall deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law. 5. No State shall deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of its laws. 6. The States severally may regulate the exercise of the voting franchise in their borders. 7. If any State disfranchises any, the representation of such State shall be reduced proportionately to the number disfranchised. 8. Leading traitors shall not vote nor hold office under the United States, but a two-thirds vote of Congress may remove either of these disabilities. 9. The United States debt shall never be repudiated. 10. The rebel debt shall never be paid. Here is the whole sum of the measures contended for by the Union party. Is there anything wrong in them? Who can point out a single objectionable feature in them? Who dares to declare his dissent from any one of them, or to undertake to give reasons why they should not be adopted? Almost all the opposition to the Union party proceeds from dense ignorance of its objects and and principles, or wilful misrepresentation of them. This opposition, when driven from every other position, finds refuge in animadversions and curses upon the negro. Its great argument is against "negro equality" and "negro suffrage." Now negro suffrage may continue in the South just as long as the white people desire it, and no longer. It is adopted as a temporary measure for the restoration of those States to the Union, and need not be permanent unless the whites will it. After they are restored to their relations with the Union, they can settle the suffrage question as they please, subject to the fourteenth amendment to the Constitution. If they do not want the negroes to vote, all right; in that case they shall not have representation for them in Congress or in the Electoral College. But the "Democratic" plan is to have thirty rebel members in Congress and thirty votes in the Electoral College, based on the negro population, while that population is denied all rights whatsoever.

The Rhode Island election is a "political straw" of considerable importance. Gen. Burnside, the Republican candidate for Governor, is re-elected by an increased majority. The Republican strength in the Legislature is also increased. Both branches are almost unanimously Republican. This Legislature will elect a United States Senator to succeed Sprague. The elections so far this year are very significant. They show that the Union party can maintain its ground in the loyal States and, beyond doubt, elect a President in November.

When the House of Representatives voted to impeach Johnson, our Beriah wrote a terrific two column screecher, declaring that the country was on the "eve of revolution." What has become of that revolution? And what a shame to decency and common sense that such shallow, blatant fools are placed in the responsible position of public journalists.

Wm. H. Rhodes, a literary and scientific gentleman, who writes under the nom de plume of "Caxton," has a communication in a late issue of the San Francisco Times in which he predicts in California a wet, cold spring, a summer scorched by siroccos, a harvest blighted in the lowlands by smut, and burnt up by north winds on the hills.

A letter from Douglas county informs us that the weather is fine there, stock doing well and prospects for crops good. Also that the Union nominations are well received, and the omens good for victory.

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 3.

Washington News

WASHINGTON, April 2.—Samuel Strong, brought before Chief Justice Carter, of the District Court, charged with being a fugitive from justice in Virginia some time since, was brought before Judge Fisher, who discharged him on the ground that Virginia is not a State in the Union and therefore Gov. Pierpont's requisition should not be recognized. Subsequently a requisition from Gen. Schofield asking that Strong be delivered to the authorized agents and be delivered to the First Military District [illegible]. The point was whether Strong should be surrendered on the requisition. Justice Carter said as a very important question was involved, he took till a further time to consider it.

Few attended at the impeachment trial to-day [illegible]. The galleries were not half full [illegible] of the trial, though many came [illegible].

Drake offered an amendment to the seventh rule providing that the votes shall be without division on questions of law and evidence, unless the ayes and noes are demanded by one-fifth of the Senators, or desired by the Chief Justice.

Congressman Ferry, of Michigan, corroborated the evidence given yesterday in regard to the interview between Gen. Thomas and Secretary Stanton.

Gen. Emory, commander of the District, testified in regard to his interview with the President, an account of which was published at that time.

Wilson offered additional documentary evidence, including correspondence between Gen. Grant and the President relative to disobeying the orders of Secretary Stanton. Stanbery made it a point that the President's letter was not evidence in the case, unless all correspondence referred to therein shall be produced. After some argument on this point, the Senate refused to sustain the objection by 20 ayes to 29 noes.

Col. Wallace, commanding garrison at Washington, testified relative to an interview he had with the President on February 23d.

Nothing important was elicited before the court took a recess.

After reassembling W. E. Chandler, late Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, testified in regard to the manner in which money is drawn out of the treasury. He knew of no means by which money could be drawn from the war department, except on an order from the Secretary of War, and signed by the President.

Evarts, of the President's counsel, inquired the object of this testimony.

Butler replied that he wanted to show that the President had put Edmund Cooper, the present acting Assistant Treasurer, into that position for unlawful purposes.

Evarts made it a point that this testimony was irrelevant to the case.

After argument on both sides, the Senate refused to admit the evidence—23 to 26.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Owing to some difficulty in the wires south of New York the continuation of the Senate proceedings was received at a late hour.

Dispatches between the President and Lewis C. Parsons, of Alabama, were introduced for the purpose, as Butler said, of showing the President's attempt to array the people against the lawful acts of Congress. After discussion, the Senate decided that the evidence was inadmissible, 27 to 17, and then adjourned.

NEW YORK, April 3.—The Tribune editorially states: "We have assurance from Washington, that Grant finds it not inconsistent with his duty as a soldier, to announce as his opinion, that the only hope for the peace of the country, is the success of the impeachment. He feels that the national security demands the removal of the President."

Rhode Island Election—Union Gains.

PROVIDENCE, April 2.—Full returns of the State election show for Burnside, 10,048; for Pierce, 6,731. Senate, 28 Republicans and 7 Democrats. There is one vacancy in each House.

Gen. Ord sails for California.

NEW YORK, April 2.—General Ord sailed for California per steamer Arizona, yesterday.

Miscellaneous.

CHICAGO, April 3.—Washington specials say the President has signed the bill exempting manufacture from the tax.

Miss Comstock, a highly respectable young lady of this city, was enticed from home yesterday by an elderly looking woman, beaten on the head with a mallet and left nearly dead in the street. There is no clue to the perpetrators or object of the crime.

From Japan.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—A dispatch from Van Valkenburg, dated Hiogo, Japan, March 2d, states that the Tycoon has absconded. The Mikado sends troops towards Yeddo. An American and two French sailors were wounded in the attack upon the foreigners, but the American marines dispersed the Japanese. The arrival of the Mikado's envoy at Hiogo restored quiet.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE.

BERLIN, April 2.—The naturalization treaty just concluded with the United States, has been finally ratified by the North German Parliament. All the speakers praised it with one voice. It was almost unanimously approved. Bismarck stated that the compact was clear at all points, and hereafter no native of Germany, naturalized in the United States, will be molested on account of his obligations to the parent country.

LONDON, April 2.—The Commons are debating the Irish question at midnight. There is a prospect of a very late session.

LISBON, April 2.—The mail steamer brings Rio advices to the 11th. The allied forces have taken Ascension, the capital, and are pressing to the rear of Humaita. The allies have 40,000 men, four iron clads and twenty wooden vessels. Lopez is reported to have only 12,000 men.

The news from Montevideo and Uruguay is to the effect that President Flores has been murdered by some confederate of his son, Fortimato. Col. Lorrarero, the Minister of War, has been elected to his place.

FROM THE NORTH.

VICTORIA, April 3.—In the Legislature yesterday, Victoria was selected as the seat of Government of British Columbia by a majority of nine, there being but five votes in favor of New Westminster.

OUR SAN FRANCISCO DISPATCH.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 3.—Jas. Golden, who was arrested on a charge of attempting to abduct Miss McDonald, has sued John Center for $50,000 for alleged malicious prosecution.

The Oakland Water Front Company filed its certificate of incorporation at San Leandro yesterday. Capital $5,000,000. Trustees, Edward R. Carpentier, Lloyd Tevis, Horace W. Carpentier, Saml. Merritt, John B. Felton and Leland Stanford. Term of existence, fifty years. Principal place of business, Oakland.

The Democratic County Committee met last night, and resolved that a Democratic primary election be held on April 22d, that 108 instead of 54 delegates shall be elected to the County Convention.

An enthusiastic railroad meeting was held at Petaluma last evening, and resolutions were adopted giving the Sonoma county donation of two hundred and fifty thousand, to the San Francisco and Humboldt Bay Railroad Company, of which Gen. Connor is President.

THE TENURE OF OFFICE ACT.—A short time ago we gave a statement of the views of Daniel Webster on the power of making removals from office, and showed that it was held by the Great Expounder that a tenure of office act like the one now in operation, would be constitutional. Henry Clay took substantially the same view with Webster, and offered as an amendment to a bill then pending (in 1835) the following:

That in all instances of appointment to office by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, the power of removal shall be exercised in concurrence with the Senate and when the Senate is not in session, the President may suspend any such officer, communicating his reasons for the suspension during the first month of its succeeding session, and if the Senate concur with him the officer shall be removed, but if it do not concur with him the officer shall be restored to office.

Yet street lawyers of the Democratic persuasion are heard to assert every day that the tenure of office act is a flagrant violation of the Constitution. Every street and cross roads politician of the Copperhead sort is a full fledged constitutional lawyer.

In West Virginia, recently, a man murdered three persons, and attended the funeral of two of them as pall-bearer before the crime was discovered.

TERPSICHOREAN CLUB.—Members will meet at the hall this evening, at eight o'clock.

VANCOUVER ITEMS.—We clip the subjoined items from the Register. There will be a public examination of the [illegible] of the "Vancouver Seminary," [illegible]. The next term will commence April 20th. [illegible] Leahy has resigned his position in the [illegible] office at this place. Wm. Leahy, we understand, has been appointed his successor. ..... Wm. M[illegible], one of the pioneer settlers of Clark county, [illegible] on the next steamer. Mr. S. contemplates a visit only, being entirely satisfied with the Pacific coast......Mr. Wm. Simmons of Fishers Landing, [illegible] to town on Tuesday last, an ox of his own [illegible], which weighed "on the hoof," 1,070 pounds. [illegible] he couldn't raise anything but apples in Washington Territory!......Articles of incorporation were filed [illegible] by the "Vancouver Water Works Company"; capital $25,000. The following named gentlemen are the incorporators: Louis Meyer, Louis Sohns, C. A. [illegible], Anton Young, S. W. Brown, E. Steggert, [illegible]. .....At the regular election of the "Hibernian Benevolent Society," held on Thursday, the 2d [illegible], the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: David Wall, President; John O'Keane, Vice [illegible]; Peter H. Fox, Recording Sec'y; Robert J. [illegible], Cor. Sec'y; John McMullen, Treasurer. .....The first of the series of cisterns which it is the intention of the city to construct for the accommodation of the Fire [illegible], has just been completed at the junction of Main and Sixth streets, and is pronounced by competent judges a good job......Rev. Dr. McCarty, formerly Chaplain at this post, and lady, now on the point of leaving for the East, were made the recipients of a handsome memento in the shape of two beautiful silver goblets, on [illegible] evening, at Oro Fino Hall, from the members of the [illegible] Sewing Society, as a token of respect and [illegible]......The body of Battersby, the man who walked off the wharf at this place on Christmas eve, was discovered [illegible] in the river opposite Love's Mill, about a [illegible] of a mile below where he fell in, on Wednesday last. The body was identified by articles of [illegible] which the deceased had purchased from parties in town. A jury was summoned by Coroner Shea, which [illegible] a verdict of accidental drowning .... We had the [illegible] of attending the Fair of the Episcopal Sewing Society, which took place at Oro Fino Hall, on Wednesday and Thursday evenings, and can in all sincerity say we never witnessed a case before in which philanthropy [illegible] so practical and useful a form. Considering the short time in which the ladies had to prepare for the Fair the Fair was decidedly creditable, but the great distinctive feature which characterized it from anything of [illegible] we ever witnessed, was the subordination of the [illegible] "show off" to the exhibition of a refined taste—[illegible] simplicity was apparent on all sides. The [illegible] of Wednesday evening amounted to $300, those of Thursday fell short of that, but exceeded $200.

NEWS FROM WARREN'S DIGGINGS.—The Lewiston [illegible] has the following encouraging statements, [illegible] from expressmen and letters from Warren's: "From Warrens we learn that the weather for the last month has been more stormy than any of the [illegible]. The snow that had fallen was moist—the [illegible] very cold. Five new quartz lodes had been [illegible] and recorded amongst which were the Oasis and the Paymaster, and are estimated to be good ledges. [illegible] of the Davis lead, at Florence, had visited [illegible] to examine the modus operandi of the mills there, in view of the purchase of one for their lode. They have water power and a wheel [illegible] constructed. Their lead is a promising one and the owners persevering and deserving men. The McJacot mill at Warrens is running in good [illegible] in all 112 tons of ore—the last 12 tons [illegible] per ton. The ore was unassorted and from [illegible] lode. They are now at work upon the ore from [illegible] B. Knott, with 20 tons on hand to crush. Mr. [illegible] had reconstructed the battery of this mill [illegible] left in bad condition by the original workmen, Wilmer, and had made as good a job as was possible [illegible] the circumstances, and with the unspoiled [illegible] left. They had crushed 36 tons of decomposed [illegible] the Sampson lode, which was unassorted, and [illegible] at thirty dollars per ton. From the Sampson they are getting more ore that will be assorted. [illegible] ing on the Scott and there will soon be [illegible] to grind of that, and also of the Knott, as [illegible] are driving away in earnest. The Pioneer mill—[illegible] Williams & Maxwell, had made a good [illegible] portion of their boiler and roasting furnaces. [illegible] amalgamators and barrels are in running [illegible] with their amalgamating pan. The mill [illegible] and Mr. W. H. Farrar is their operator, with [illegible]. The capacity of this mill is small, yet it is [illegible] to be successful in the hands it now is. They [illegible] of getting another battery, and are corraling [illegible] produced from their battery early in the [illegible] them a fair test. In fact the quartz mill[illegible] look extremely favorable, and each of our [illegible] successful."

CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS!
A Pure and Powerful Tonic,
Corrective and Alterative, of wonderful efficacy in Diseases of the STOMACH, LIVER AND BOWELS.
PROTECTIVE PROPERTIES.
Prevents Fever and Ague and Billious Remittant Fevers; Fortifies the System against Miasma and the evil effects of unwholesome water, invigorates the organs of digestion and the bowels,
Steadies the Nerves and tends to Prolong Life.
REMEDIAL PROPERTIES.
Cures Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, Sick and Nervous Headache, General Debility, Nervousness, Depression of Spirits, Constipation, Colic, Intermittent Fevers, Sea Sickness, Cramps and Spasms, and all complaints of either sex arising from Bodily Weakness, whether inherent in the system or PRODUCED BY SPECIAL CAUSES.

NOTHING THAT IS NOT WHOLESOME, GENIAL, and restorative in its nature, enters into the composition of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. This popular preparation contains no mineral of any kind, no deadly botanical element, no fiery excitant, but is a combination of the extracts of rare balsamic herbs and plants, with the purest and mildest of all diffusive stimulants.

The weak stomach is rapidly invigorated, and the appetite restored by this Tonic, and hence it works wonders in cases of Dyspepsia, and in less confirmed forms of Indigestion. Acting as a gentle and painless aperient, as well as upon the liver, it also invariably relieves the Constipation superinduced by irregular action of the digestive and secretive organs.

Persons of feeble habit, liable to Nervous Attacks, Lowness of Spirits, and Fits of Languor, find prompt and permanent relief from the Bitters. The testimony on this point is conclusive, and from both sexes.

As a Genuine Tonic HOSTETTER'S BITTERS produce effects which must be experienced or witnessed before they can be fully appreciated. In cases of Constitutional Weakness, Premature Decay, and Debility and Decrepitude arising from old age, it exercises the electric influence. In the convalescent stages of all diseases it operates as a delightful invigorant. When the powers of nature are relaxed, it operates to re-enforce and re-establish them.

Last, but not least, it is the only safe stimulant, being manufactured from sound and innocuous materials, and entirely free from the acrid elements present more or less in all the ordinary tonics and stomachics of the day.

G. VENARD,
CHARTRES COFFEE!
Manufactory Established in June, 1851.
STEAM POWER, NOS. 625 AND 627 FRONT ST.
HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities. CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.
The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.
BEWARE OF COUNTERFEITS.

The New Treaty with the North German Confederation

The following is the full text of the new treaty between the United States and the King of Prussia in the name of the North German Confederation, for the purpose of regulating the citizenship of those persons who may emigrate from the one country to the other. The treaty was sent to the Senate for ratification on the [illegible] of March:

The President of the United States and His Majesty, King of Prussia, in the name of the North German Confederation, led by a wish to regulate the citizenship of those persons who emigrate from the North German Confederation to the United States of America, and from the United States of America to the territory of the North German Confederation, have resolved to treat on this subject, and have for that purpose appointed plenipotentiaries to conclude a convention, that is to say, the President of the United States of America, George Bancroft, Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the said States, near the King of Prussia and the North German Confederation, and His Majesty, the King of Prussia, Bernhard Koenig, Privy Counsellor of the Legation, who have agreed to and signed the following articles:

Article 1. Citizens of the North German Confederation who have become naturalized citizens of the United States of America and shall have resided uninterruptedly within the United States five years, shall be held by the North German Confederation to be American citizens and shall be treated as such. Reciprocally, citizens of the United States of America who become naturalized citizens of the North German Confederation, and shall have resided uninterruptedly within North Germany five years shall be held by the United States to be North German citizens, and shall be treated as such. The declaration of an intention to become a citizen of one or the other country has not for either party the effect of naturalization.

Art. 2. A naturalized citizen of one party, on his return to the territory of the other, remains liable to trial and punishment for an action punishable by the laws of his original country, and committed before his emigration, having always the limitation established by the laws of his original country.

Art. 3. The convention for the mutual delivery of criminals, fugitives from justice in certain cases, as concluded between the United States on the one part, and Prussia and the other States of Germany on the other part, on the 16th day of June, 1852, is hereby extended to all the States of the North German Confederation.

Art. 4. If a German naturalized in America renews his residence in North Germany without intent to return to America, he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization in the United States; reciprocally, if an American, naturalized in North Germany, returns to his residence in the United States without intent to return to North Germany, he shall be held to have renounced his naturalization to North Germany. The intent not to return may be held to exist when the person naturalized in one country resides more than two years in another country.

Art. 5. The present convention shall go into effect immediately upon the exchange of ratifications, and shall continue in force for ten years. If neither party shall have given to the other six months' notice of the intention then to terminate the same, it shall further remain in force until the end of twelve months after either of the contracting parties shall have given notice to the other of such intention.

Art. 6. The present convention shall be ratified by the President, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate of the United States, and by His Majesty, the King of Prussia, in the name of the North German Confederation, and the ratifications shall be exchanged at Berlin within six months from the date hereof.

In faith whereof the Plenipotentiaries have signed and sealed the convention at Berlin, the 2d of February, 1868.

[Seal.] GEORGE BANCROFT
[Seal.] BERNHARD KOENIG.

The Democratic papers make a great outcry about negro supremacy, and point to the reconstruction conventions as an illustration. Let us see the extent of negro supremacy of these bodies. In Virginia 25 out of 105 delegates, or less than one-fourth are colored men. In North Carolina, 13 out of 120, less than one ninth. In Mississippi, 12 out of 128. In Florida, 20 out of 80 are colored. In Georgia, 15 out of 195, or one thirteenth are colored. In Alabama, 19 are colored, about one fifth of the whole body. In Arkansas, 5 out of 78 are colored. In South Carolina the two races are about equal. In Texas the delegates have not been chosen.

In "a moral story," by the younger Dumas, a married woman is represented as writing to her lover, explaining why she will not follow him. "I am not free," she says, "my family, society, public opinion, and—must I say it—my husband, too, have claims on me." The nonchalance and careless indifference with which the husband is slipped in among the things that prevent her elopement, find no parallel out of a French novel.

A Feat.—In the billiard room of Willard's Hotel, at Washington, recently, a boozy individual made a bet that he could swallow a billiard ball. A ball was offered and with some effort got through his teeth and into his mouth, and there it stayed, and would neither go down or come out, until a surgeon, after a half hour's hardwork, removed it.

The Pall Mall Gazette, in a recent criticism, mildly animadverts on the author's plagiarism. "Nor is the author free from the reprehensible practice of omitting quotation marks where they should obviously be inserted."

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

PORTLAND, April 3, 1868.

On the 1st inst., Gold closed at New York at 138¼, exactly the quotations of last week. Legal Tenders in San Francisco were, on the same day 71¾@72¼.

The following are New York quotations, April 1st: Pacific coast Flour, $12 75@14 50. Wheat $3 15@3 20. At San Francisco, best Oregon brands of Flour, quoted at $7 50@7 87½. Wheat—market firm, at $2 25 to $2 55, according to quality. Oats have advanced in that market, under a monopoly of the stock in few hands, to $2 00@2 65 per hundred pounds.

Our local produce market is dull and it is difficult to give exact quotations. Wheat is weak at $1@1 05; Flour ditto, at the quotations. Our monthly statement of receipts and exports for the month of March, prepared from the most reliable data attainable, shows the following:

RECEIPTS.		EXPORTS.
Flour, qr sks	19,932	Flour, qr sks	53,604
Wheat, bags 150 lbs	13,092	Wheat, 150 lbs bags	7,376
Oats, 2 bush	2,229	Oats, sacks, 2 bush	193
Apples, boxes	10,751	Apples, boxes	11,759
Bacon, gunnies	879	Bacon, cases	266
Pork, bbls & cases	367	Pork, bbls	441
Dried apples, hf bbls	853	Dried apples, hf bbls	763
Lard, cases & hf bbls	356	Lard, cases	196
Beef, mess, bbls	430	Beef, mess, bbls	170
Potatoes, gunnies	136	Potatoes, gunnies	1,576
Onions, gunnies	100	Onions, gunnies	510

It will be seen that there has been a considerable excess of receipts over exports, of Flour and Wheat, resulting from the scarcity of tonnage obtainable between this city and San Francisco. The excess of the last month, added to the stock on hand March 1st, will aggregate probably not less than 74,000 sacks Flour and 20,000 sacks Wheat.

The brig Brewster, hence for San Francisco Friday morning, carries for McCraken, Merrill & Co. 4,000 qr sacks Salem Mills Flour. This is the first time in the history of the country that a single mill has furnished an entire cargo, and perhaps the first time that an export cargo of that amount has ever consisted exclusively of Flour. The same firm will load the North Star upon her arrival (soon expected) with Salem Mills Flour for San Francisco.

Messrs. Bayley & Co are preparing 500 bbls Imperial three-quarter sacks in gunnies for the Boston market and will despatch it if possible by the steamer John L. Stephens.

In general, the jobbing merchandise market has not kept up the improving activity noticeable during the preceding three or four weeks, yet in some departments trade has been very good and in none has there been any real occasion for complaint. Groceries have been a little more active than anything else. Dry Goods firm, fair and prices without material change. Hardware quiet, prices somewhat weak. Oil, leading burning brands lower and with a general downward tendency.

The interior Columbia valley reports are favorable for an active spring trade. The trade of the Willamette valley is steady, and shows a marked increase over all preceding years. Altogether the indications for a good business season are hopeful.

Weekly Retail Family Market.

PORTLAND, April 3, 1868.

There is not as much improvement in the retail business as many were led to expect with the commencement of the spring season. The majority of dealers believe that the requirements of the city trade will not justify the number of persons now engaged in retailing. Vegetables are unusually scarce, and the late spring promises a continuance of the scarcity of green fruits and vegetables. In the meantime our market is being partly supplied from California.

SOOTHING AND BRACING.—There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint and intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart, nervous headache, vertigo, general debility and all peculiar disorders and derangements to which as a sex they are subject. It cheers and it strengthens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

525 MILES
OF THE
UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD!
Running West from Omaha
ACROSS THE CONTINENT,
ARE NOW COMPLETED.

This brings the line to the Eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, and it is expected that the track will be laid thirty miles further to Evans Pass, the highest point on the road, by January. The maximum grade from the foot of the mountains to the summit is but eighty feet to the mile, while that of many eastern roads is over one hundred. Work in the rock cuttings on the western slope will continue through the winter, and there is now no reason to doubt that the entire grand line to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870.

The means provided for the construction of this Great National Work are ample. The United States grants its Six Per Cent. Bonds at the rate of from $16,000 to $48,000 per mile, for which it takes a second lien as security, and receives payment to a large if not to the full extent of its claim in services. These bonds are issued as each twenty mile section is finished, and after it has been examined by the United States Commissioners and pronounced to be in all respects a first class road, thoroughly supplied with depots, repair shops, stations, and all the necessary rolling stock and other equipments.

The United States also makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, which will be a source of large revenue to the Company. Much of this land in the Platte Valley is among the most fertile in the world, and other large portions are covered with heavy pine forests and abound in coal of the best quality.

The Company is also authorized to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an amount equal to the issue of the Government and no more. Hon. E. D. Morgan and Hon. Oakes Ames are Trustees for the Bondholders, and deliver the bonds to the Company only as the work progresses, so that they always represent an actual and productive value.

The authorized capital of the Company is One Hundred Million Dollars, of which over five millions have been paid in upon the work already done.

EARNINGS OF THE COMPANY.

At present the profits of the Company are derived only from its local traffic, but this is already much more than sufficient to pay the interest on all the Bonds the Company can issue, if not another mile were built. It is not doubted that when the road is completed the through traffic of the only line connecting the Atlantic and Pacific States will be large beyond precedent, and as there will be no competition, it can always be done at profitable rates.

It will be noticed that the Union Pacific Railroad is, in fact, a Government Work, built under the supervision of Government officers, and to a large extent with Government money, and that its bonds are issued under Government direction. It is believed that no similar security is so carefully guarded, and certainly no other is based upon a larger or more valuable property. As the Company's are offered for the present AT PAR IN U. S. CURRENCY, they are the cheapest security in the market, being more than 15 per cent. lower than U. S. Stocks. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,

or over NINE PER CENT. upon the investment. Subscriptions will be received in Portland by

A NEW PAMPHLET AND MAP showing the Progress of the Work, Resources for Construction, and Value of Bonds, may be obtained at the Company's Offices or of its advertised Agents, or will be sent free on application.

Bounty Land Warrants.—All officers, soldiers, sailors, marines, their widows, former widows or children, who were actually engaged in battle in any war between 1790 and March 3, 1855, are entitled to a Land Warrant of 160 acres. H. W. SHIPLEY & CO.,

SHIPLEY'S PATENT PACIFIC
TURBINE WATER WHEEL!

Of which the above is an illustration, has FOUR SETS OF BUCKETS, AND USES THREE-FOURTHS OF THE WATER TWICE.

The old high priced, unequalled and unrivalled wheel has been PLAYED OUT by a fair working trial made by Mr. H. Kelly, at his saw mill, and the public can see what he says as to the capacity of the two wheels in the following testimonial over his own signature.

Mr. H. W. Shipley, Sir: In reply to your inquiry as to how I like your Pacific Turbine Wheel, I have to say that I have used one over shot and three Leffel wheels, 10, 13 and 15 inch diameters. When I substituted your 15 inch wheel for the 13 inch Leffel wheel, though unfinished, it worked the machinery like a top, using 52 ft of water per minute more than the 13 inch Leffel. At your request I subsequently took your wheel out that it might be finished, and then I put in a 15 inch Leffel, but it gave no better power than yours while it used 52 cubic feet more water per minute. After a few months I replaced your wheel and am still using it with the most satisfactory results. I have subjected it to some severe tests. For instance, while running the circular saw in a log which squared 15 inches, I added the planer with a 9 inch knife, cutting from one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch depth, without in the least slacking the speed. After thorough tests of both wheels I am satisfied that your wheel with gates one-eighth of an inch open gives as much power as the Leffel with gates one third open. At half gate your wheel gives double the power of the Leffel at half gate. At full gate the power of yours exceeds that of the Leffel by from ten to twelve per cent. At quarter gate, the Leffel holds no comparison with yours at quarter gate.

N. B. Mr. Shipley was not present at either of the trials of his wheel, he being sick at the first, and absent from the State at the second trial.

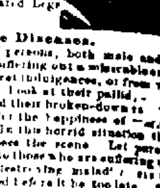
Medical.

TO THE UNFORTUNATE.
NEW REMEDIES, NEW REMEDIES
Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,



616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL, San Francisco. Established in 1854, for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases, such as Gonorrhea, Gleet, Stricture, Syphilis in all its forms, Seminal Weakness, Impotency, etc. Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated.

Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons, both male and female, are there who are suffering out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences, or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid, emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken-down constitutions, disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage, or the enjoyment of life. In this horrid situation thousands suffer until death closes the scene. Let parents, guardians, friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible, destroying maladies, see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late. Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon, a physician who has made private disease his especial study for years, and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted, or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends, to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities, publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days, imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be therefore careful and make strict inquiry, or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans.

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal Emissions, the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice, or depraved sexual indulgence, is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty, the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures, viz: Sallow countenance, dark spots under the eyes, pain in the head, ringing in the ears, noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots, uneasiness about the loins, weakness of the limbs, confused vision, blunted intellect, loss of confidence, diffidence in approaching strangers, a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society, loss of memory, hectic flushes, pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue, fetid breath, coughs, consumption, night sweats, monomania and frequent insanity. If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter, and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease, which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. Dr. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage, who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies, should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them, nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible, and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure, or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr. Gibbon, stating case, symptoms, length of time the disease has continued, and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use, for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co.

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders, who, with bogus sworn to certificates, dupe the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen, and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers, etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians, in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr. Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles, certificates, pretended patient's letters, etc. Dr. Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure.

Address DR. J. F. GIBBON, 616 Kearney street, corner Commercial, San Francisco. Post Office Box 252.
REMEMBER TO PUT BOX 252 ON THE LETTER.
Consultations FREE.
Correspondents will please inform DR. GIBBON that they read his advertisement in the Daily Oregonian.
